

Dear Father

I am sorry for when I get angry about things that are all to do with me, like not getting what I want, or being found out for doing wrong.

Thank you that Jesus has lived a perfectly good life so that you look on me as if I had never done wrong. Please change me from the inside to become more like Jesus.

I would especially like help with this:

Amen.

Dear Father

I am sorry for when I get angry about things that are all to do with me, like not getting what I want, or being found out for doing wrong.

Thank you that Jesus has lived a perfectly good life so that you look on me as if I had never done wrong. Please change me from the inside to become more like Jesus.

I would especially like help with this:

Amen.